Procedures for Restrictions on Certain Transfers of and Declarations of Worthlessness with Respect to Interests in the Debtors' Estates¹

These procedures for restrictions on certain transfers of and declarations of worthlessness with respect to interests in the Debtors' estates (these "Procedures") are the mechanism by which the Debtors propose that they will monitor and, if necessary, object to certain transfers of Common Stock and declarations of worthlessness with respect to Common Stock to ensure preservation of the Tax Attributes. The Procedures are set forth below:

Alberto (jalberto@coleschotz.com) and Stacy L. Newman (snewman@coleschotz.com) (collectively, the "Notice Parties").

Restrictions and Procedures for Trading in Common Stock. Any Person that, after the Effective Time (as defined below):

is not a Substantial Shareholder and wishes to purchase or otherwise acquire Beneficial Ownership of an amount of Common Stock that would cause the Person to become a Substantial Shareholder;

¹ Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Motion.

is a Substantial Shareholder and wishes to purchase or otherwise acquire Beneficial Ownership of any additional Common Stock; or is a Substantial Shareholder and wishes to sell or otherwise dispose of Beneficial Ownership of any Common Stock, must file with the Court and serve upon the Notice Parties an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A-2 (a “Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock”) or Exhibit A-3 (a “Declaration of Intent to Transfer Common Stock” and, together with a Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock, each a “Declaration of Proposed Transfer”), as applicable.

The Debtors and the Committee shall have 20 calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Proposed Transfer to file with the Court and serve on the applicable Person an objection to any proposed transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock described in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer on the grounds that such transfer might adversely affect the Debtors’ ability to utilize their Tax Attributes.

If the Debtors or the Committee, as applicable, file an objection, such transaction shall remain ineffective unless such objection is withdrawn by the Debtors, or such transaction is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court.

If the Debtors or the Committee, as applicable, do not object within such 20-day period, such transaction can proceed solely as set forth in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer. Further transactions within the scope of the Procedures must be the subject of additional notices in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, with an additional 20-day waiting period for each Declaration of Proposed Transfer.

Procedures for Declarations of Worthlessness of Common Stock. Prior to filing any federal or state tax return, or any amendment to any such return, or taking any other action that claims any deduction for worthlessness with respect to Common Stock for a taxable year ending before the Debtors’ emergence from chapter 11, the applicable 50% Shareholder must file with the Court and serve upon the Notice Parties a declaration of intent to claim a worthless stock deduction, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A-4 (a “Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction”). The same procedures applicable to a Declaration of Proposed Transfer (described in Section 0 hereof) shall apply with respect to a Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction.

Confidentiality. The Debtors and the Debtors’ counsel shall keep all information provided in all notices delivered pursuant to an interim or final order entered by the Court (an “Interim Order” or “Final Order,” respectively)_ strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any Person (including any lender), except to the extent (a) necessary to respond to a petition or objection filed with the Court, (b) otherwise required by law, or (c) that the information contained therein is already public; provided, however, that the Debtors may disclose the contents thereof to their professional advisors, who shall keep all such notices strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any other Person, subject to further Court order. To the extent that confidential information is necessary to respond to a petition or objection filed with the Court, such confidential information shall be filed under seal or in redacted form in accordance with the procedures set forth in Local Rule 9018-1(d).

Sanctions for Noncompliance Relating to Common Stock. Acquisitions and dispositions of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or claims of deductions of worthlessness with respect to Common Stock in violation of the Procedures set forth in Sections 0 and 0 of these Procedures shall be void ab initio as an act in violation of the automatic stay prescribed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and pursuant to the Court's equitable power prescribed in section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The sanction for violating Section 0 of these Procedures shall be reversal of the noncompliant transaction, or such other (or additional) measures as the Court may consider appropriate. The sanction for violating Section 0 of these Procedures shall be the requirement to file an amended tax return revoking the declaration of worthlessness, or such other (or additional) measures as the Court may consider appropriate.

Discretionary Waiver by the Debtors. The Debtors may, upon consultation with the Committee, waive, in writing (including via email), any sanctions, remedies, or notification procedures imposed by the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable.

Continued Compliance with Other Applicable Laws and Rules. The requirements set forth in the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable, are in addition to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) and applicable securities, corporate, and other laws, and do not excuse compliance therewith.

Special Rules. A Person acquiring or disposing of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in the capacity of Agent of another Person shall not be treated as a Substantial Shareholder solely to the extent acting in the capacity of Agent, and shall not have an affirmative duty to inquire whether the account, customer, investment fund, principal, trust, or beneficiary is subject to any restrictions or requirements under the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable; provided, however, that the account, customer, investment fund, principal, trust, or beneficiary shall not be excluded from the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, by reason of this Section 0.
